1500 CHURCH VOTES CLAIMED BY LAUKEA

PROSPECTS GOOD SAYS ROBERTSON

"If the election were to take place tomorrow the Republican ticket would meet with substantial success," said A. G. M. Robertson to a Bulletin man Monday. "Split ticket voting would probably result in electing Harvey, Trent, and Jarrett, but the best-man propaganda as represented by Achi, Beckley, Long, Laukea, and Monsarrat would be down and out. I do not think any of them would get over 500 votes. Some split-ticket Republicans in the Fourth District are talking of voting for Watson for Senator instead of Henriques. This is a mistaken idea, for it would not elect Watson. It might defeat Henriques, but the Democrat to be elected would be Harvey, not Watson. The County Committee is doing good work for the straight ticket, and they ought to lay particular stress on the Senatorial ticket in order to beat Harvey, and special effort should be made in behalf of von Holt for Treasurer and Wise for Sheriff, as they are up against candidates who are hard to beat."

Straight Ticket Talks From Republicans

OPENING RALLY AT AALA IS GREAT SUCCESS

Twenty-five hundred people listened to the Republican orators last night at Aala Park as they pleaded for their party and exhorted all to vote the straight ticket. Most of the speakers made this point the vital one in their speeches, referring again and again to the Republican party and its straight policy. The crowd was an exceedingly well ordered one, with the exception of a sneaking miscreant who threw a couple of rotten eggs into the audience, and the many speakers held its attention well. W. O. Smith introduced the Hon. Jack Lucas as the chairman of the evening. "I want you to understand that I'm a Republican, and no backslider," said Jack. "I went to that convention, gentlemen, after the nomination for Mayor, but I can take defeat like a gentleman." He then referred to "Mooheau," which brought laughter and cheers from the crowd. John Hughes was the first man he introduced. Hughes' Straightforward Talk "Gentlemen," he said, "two years ago we stood on this platform and pledged you the best that was in us. Relying on our pledge, you honored us by electing us, and because we were faithful to the trust, we are here again tonight to seek your support. What the Party Has Done "The Legislature of 1907 marks a new era in the history of legislation in this Territory. We did what was right, and there was not one cent of your money which could not be accounted for. There were passed bills that benefited this Territory twenty per cent, more than any other legislation ever passed here. The Legislature of 1907 certainly did its duty by you people, and it fears no honest criticism. "The Republican party goes into this campaign with knowledge of work well done. We appeal to common sense, your integrity, and when you come to weigh up what has been done, we feel sure you will come on the Republican side. Will Elevate Politics "We propose in this campaign to elevate politics to a high plane. This (Continued on Page 3) Registration Hours 8 to 10, 12 to 1, 4 to 7.

Edings To Mandamus Mott-Smith

Mandamus proceedings will be brought this afternoon by Judge Edings, in his own name, and not that of John Emmeluth, to compel Secretary of the Territory E. A. Mott-Smith to receive the nomination of John S. Chandler of Kauai for Senator. This nomination was received Monday morning, and, according to an opinion rendered from the Attorney-General's department, should not be received on account of its tardiness. Judge Edings stated this morning that he would have the papers prepared and placed on record this afternoon, and the case will be brought to as speedy a culmination as possible. Secretary Mott-Smith welcomes the proceedings, for there is a pretty question involved, and he feels that it should be decided. Should he be sustained in the stand he has taken, it will mean that George Fairchild will be elected Senator without opposition. Edings takes the stand that Sunday being dies non the time for receiving nominations should have been extended until Monday. This, however, is the moot question, as Monday is in fact the twenty-ninth day before election.

SUGAR COMPANY SUED FOR $5000

Hutchison Plantation Is Alleged To Have Broken Faith

Because he alleges that they broke faith with him and did not give proper accounting of money in their hands, G. Imo has brought suit for damages against the Hutchison Sugar Plantation Company for a sum that totals $5000, although $1000 of this is for money that is owed to them. Imo states that some time ago the plantation company assigned a lease of 17 1/2 acres of cane land to him and his partners, and the crop on this was ripe in February, 1906. According to a contract between them, the company was then to furnish transportation for the cane, grind it and go through all the preliminaries for getting rid of it. However, Imo alleges that instead of doing this, the Company did not touch his crop until December, 1907, by which time it was practically wasted, being eaten by rats. For this, Imo asks $3000 damages. Then when the cane was finally sold, the company is alleged not to have made an accounting to him of the proceeds. For this he asks $1000. Again he claims $1000 due on a debt. C. W. Ashford is his attorney.

Soper May Go Mining

It is reported that General John S. Soper will soon go to Nevada to engage in mining business there. General Soper does not deny the report, stating that he will soon leave for the Coast, and that he may go to Nevada and look into the mining situation there.

"I was in Nevada in the sixties," added the General. "These were the days when hostile Indians abounded, and there was much hardship. As a matter of fact, my mother died there from exposure, and for months we had to live on dried beef and corn. I have been within a few miles of Tonopah, which now is a great mining center."

NO WORD YET FROM BIG CRUISER FLEET

Docking Plan Will Be Changed—One Division Outside

Still silent, though now almost certainly in easy wireless reach of this port, the Pacific Fleet is due to arrive tomorrow. Everything is in readiness for them, while it is expected that wireless communication will be established this evening, in order that the necessary preliminary business may be transacted. The absence of colliders, which modified the docking plan while the vessels were in port before, will this time make it necessary for one division to lie at anchor outside while the other is inside coaling, and for the divisions then to change places. This will not affect the flagships West Virginia and Tennessee, both of which will be docked, the West Virginia at the Alakei street slip, and the flagship of Admiral Sigsbee at the Oceanic wharf. The Channel wharf is not to be used in the coaling operations at all. The destroyer flotilla will be at the Naval wharf, as before, and the Solace is also to be docked. A number of rumors have been afloat in regard to the fleet that all of the vessels are not returning here, and that they have been delayed and will not make port until the 10th inst. These are merely rumors, however. Nothing more has been heard in regard to the cruiser Colorado. It is known that she is to be sent down here, as there is a seaman in port who is to be transferred to her, but when she should arrive is not known, definitely.

Expects 1500 Votes Of Church

"I feel confident that I will get at least fifteen hundred votes from the church people. There are several thousand men who go to church on Sunday instead of going to baseball or fishing, and I expect that I will get the votes of the majority of them."

This statement was made this morning by Sheriff Laukea, who is, at least, apparently pretty hopeful of full support from the church element in spite of the fact that the Ministerial Union yesterday adopted a very lukewarm attitude toward him, placing itself in the position of being willing to give him endorsements only as long as they could be of no practical use to him.

Clergymen Working It was reported among the politicians this morning that the Hawaiian preachers of the Evangelical Association were working tooth and nail for the Sheriff amongst their flocks. Laukea stated that, although he had received no official information to this effect, he believed that this was very likely the case. He further stated that he thought that the Evangelical Association, when it held a meeting in the near future, would take up the (Continued on Page 2)

NOON HOUR POLITICS

The first noon-hour political shot was fired today by Sam Kalua at the corner of King and Bethel streets. Mounted on a shoe-box and wearing a Prince Albert coat, Kalua shouted and thundered at the crowd which lined up on the mauka side of King street and along Bethel street. Kalua is a well-known Democratic speaker. He dwelt upon the Wallace cure, which was "wiped out of existence by the Republican leaders." He complimented Mrs. Mary Atcherly for her untiring efforts in trying to relieve the Hawaiian sufferers. He then went into the general condition of various political parties, denouncing the Home Rulers for permitting the Laborites to join their ranks.

Announcement is made in New York that the grand opera season will open there Nov. 16. A serious attempt is to be made to give grand operas in English. Capt. Nathaniel Keeney, while fishing from a power boat near New London, Conn., captured an eight-foot, man-eating shark that weighed 1200 pounds.

Claims New Tenement Ordinance Is Void

While the people of Makiki and, as a matter of fact, of the residence section in general, have been rejoicing over the new ordinance passed by the Board of Supervisors at its last meeting, providing against the erection of any tenement or lodging-house within five hundred feet of a school-house, the Japanese, against whose camp opposite the Kaahumanu School, the step was directed, are preparing to knock out this ordinance on the grounds that it is unconstitutional. Two of the Japanese interested in the erection of the new camp, M. Muranaka and Yamana, this morning appeared in the Police Court on a charge of violating the ordinance. The complaint against them was sworn to by Col. C. J. McCarthy, who owns considerable property in the neighborhood of the new camp. E. C. Peters, who appeared for the defendants, feels confident that he can knock out the ordinance. "It is quite evident that the ordinance is unconstitutional on its face," he said this forenoon after the session of the court. "A man has a perfect right to build lodging houses on or do anything else with his own property as long as he does not make it a nuisance." The case was continued until tomorrow, when the point will probably be fought out.
